Rural Renewal Stream Process

Candidate Employer Economic Development The Economic Development Partnership reviews Employers with vacancies applications and may conduct submit an application to an interview with the the Economic employer to determine the Development Partnership Prospective candidates review eligibility and participation in the job postings eligible for the program the Rural Renewal Stream Program and apply directly to the employer for the positions they are qualified for. The Economic Development Partnership links the employer's vacancy to a Rural Renewal Stream job board. Employer issues a job offer to the candidate for full time permanent work. Economic Development issues Candidate applies for an endorsement letter directly provincial nomination through to the candidate the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program Portal The Employer contacts the Economic Development Economic Development Partnership for a letter of Partnership checks in with the endorsement on behalf of the candidate throughout the candidate. immigration process.