INCREASE STAFF SUCCESS	1.1.1 Staff Succession Planning	Administration has improved upon HR reporting to track relevant metrics. Specifically, we have implemented monthly retention calculations for Greenview, and are working on improving our capture of all training opportunities provided. HR reporting provides valuable data for strategic workforce planning. By understanding retention rates and training effectiveness, we can identify potential gaps in skills or talent, develop succession plans, and proactively address workforce needs. In addition, Stay Interviews are beginning to take place to better understand what employees like about Greenview which will also assist in the understanding of how to better retain employees. 	1.1.2 Provide current staff growth opportunities when appropriate.	Administration is actively engaged in developing robust talent management programs. Recently, Human Resources coordinated training for all Supervisors, Managers, and SLT. The objective of this training was to strengthen leadership skills at all supervisory levels. This year's training session was Risk Informed Management Training, which focused on skills required to address, reduce, and eliminate employee misconduct and disruptive behaviours. Going forward, HR will provide annual supervisory training opportunities. As part of this initiative, senior leadership is embarking on a trial phase to assess the effectiveness of a tool designed to identify high-potential employees within the organization. Following this, administration will proceed with succession mapping that identifies staff transition possibilities when needed. It is important to note however that as a government body postings will remain as open competitions either internally or externally. GOAL	STRATEGY	OVERVIEW	MEASURES	HIGHLIGHTS
MAINTAIN FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY	2.1.1 Monitor and maintain capital spending and operational fiscal responsibility.	In 2022, diligent monitoring of both capital and operational spending practices resulted in a commendable display of fiscal responsibility. This proactive approach allowed us to achieve significant cost savings, leading to a reduction in the 2023 capital and operational budget. Despite these budgetary adjustments, we have ensured that all traditional levels of service provided to the community have been maintained without compromise. This accomplishment underscores our commitment to effective financial management and our ability to optimize available resources while continuing to meet the needs and expectations of our residents.	Budget policy that includes a 5-year operating budget plan To present and approve an interim budget annually. 	2.1.2 Adopt an Asset Management plan.	Our Asset Management Plan is an ongoing work in progress, but we are pleased to report that significant progress has been made across all departments. In particular, there has been notable advancement in asset inventory assessment, where comprehensive evaluations have been conducted to establish an accurate and up-to-date record of our assets. This critical step has provided valuable insights into the condition, lifespan, and maintenance requirements of our infrastructure. With this solid foundation in place, we are now well-positioned to chart a clear path forward for effective asset management. By leveraging the information gathered, we will develop strategies to optimize asset performance, prioritize maintenance and renewal efforts, and ensure the long-term sustainability of our valuable community assets. Strategically located just 40 km south of Grande Prairie, AB, it offers a prime location with access to essential resources and infrastructure. The Greenview Industrial Gateway provides various advantages, including access to process water, power supply, full rail capacity, and direct access to the TC Energy distribution line. Additionally, the site offers solutions for CO2 sequestration and low-cost land options, making it an ideal choice for companies seeking environmentally responsible and economically viable operations.
