PART TEN - DANGEROUS ANIMALS

- 10.1 The Peace Officer may declare an animal to be dangerous (the declaration) if the animal:
- a) has killed a person;
 - b) has killed an animal without provocation;
 - c) has a known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack without provocation, to cause injury or to otherwise threaten the safety of humans or animals;
 - d) has bitten, inflicted injury, harassed or otherwise assaulted a human or animal;
 - e) has been trained or used for fighting;
 - f) in the opinion of the Peace Officer, otherwise represents a threat to public safety or to other animals.
- 10.2 The Peace Officer shall apprehend, and impound an animal that has been declared dangerous. The Peace Officer may quarantine the animal in the pound for a minimum of ten (10) days at the owner's expense (the quarantine period) if, in the opinion of the Peace Officer, the animal may be rabid or otherwise diseased.
- 10.3 The Peace Officer shall notify the owner of the declaration that includes the following information:
- a) a summary of the reasons in support of the declaration;
 - b) the recommended disposition;
 - c) a copy of this section 10;
 - d) a statement that the owner may request that Council hold a show cause review of the declaration, and that if the owner does not, the matter will be disposed of as recommended by the Peace Officer.
- 10.4 The declaration shall include the Peace Officer's recommended disposition that may include:
- a) the animal be euthanized; or,
 - b) the animal be released upon the owner undertaking to follow any, or all, of the following conditions:
 - i. while on private property, the animal is to be kept either securely confined indoors or in a securely enclosed and locked pen, structure or compound;
 - ii. while on public property the animal is to be kept muzzled and restrained by a chain or leash not exceeding 2 metres in length under the direct, continuous and effective control of a person competent to control the animal;
 - iii. the owner shall display in a conspicuous location at all entrances to the premises where the animal is kept, a sign or signs, reading 'beware of dangerous animal', posted in such a manner that they cannot be removed easily by a passer-by and are capable of being read from outside the premises;
 - iv. within three (3) working days of selling, giving away or otherwise disposing of the animal, the owner shall provide the Peace Officer with the name, address and telephone number of the new owner;
 - v. the owner shall advise the Peace Officer within three (3) working days of the death of the animal;

- vi. the owner shall advise the Peace Officer immediately if the animal has gone missing, or is running at large, or has bitten, harassed or otherwise assaulted a person or animal;
 - vii. the owner shall maintain in force, to the satisfaction of the Peace Officer, a comprehensive liability insurance policy, including coverage for damage or injury caused by the dangerous animal, with a minimum limit of liability of $1,000,000 per occurrence;
 - viii. any other conditions the Peace Officer considers advisable.
- 10.5 The Peace Officer shall keep a record of all biting, harassing and assault incidents, identifying the animal and providing a description of the incident. The record may be used in a review by Council.
- 10.6 The owner may request Council, in writing, within fourteen (14) days of the date of the declaration, hold a show cause review of the declaration.
- 10.7 If an owner does not request a review by Council, the Peace Officer's recommended disposition shall constitute a final order in respect of which there is no appeal, and the Peace Officer is authorized to take the actions as recommended.
- 10.8 If the owner requests a review by Council and the Peace Officer believes that it is necessary for the protection of the public or animals, pending the review by Council, the Peace Officer may:
- a) require that the animal remain impounded, quarantined or otherwise; or,
 - b) release the animal to the custody of the owner and require any or all of the conditions set out in 10.4.
- 10.9 The Town shall notify the owner at least 10 days in advance of the review.
- 10.10 At the show cause review, the owner has the right to appear, with or without counsel, and to make submissions to Council and present evidence. The owner also has the right to hear the submissions presented at the review by or on behalf of the Peace Officer, and to inspect documents filed by or on behalf of the Peace Officer.
- 10.11 If the owner does not attend the review, Council may deal with the matter in the owner's absence, and the owner shall not be entitled to further notice concerning the proceedings concerning the animal.
- 10.12 Following the review, Council may confirm, vary, substitute, or cancel the declaration of the Peace Officer.
- 10.13 The Town shall immediately notify the owner of its decision.
- 10.14 Where Council has reviewed the declaration and confirmed the animal should be euthanized:
- a) the Peace Officer shall apprehend the animal, if the animal has been released to the custody of its owner; and
 - b) the Peace Officer shall euthanize the animal.
- 10.15 Where:
- a) an animal has been released on conditions under this Part:
 - i. pending a show cause review,
 - ii. where there is no review; or
 - iii. following a review and the owner breaches any of the conditions, or
 - b) an animal, after having been declared dangerous, does any of the things described in section 10.1, the Peace Officer may apprehend and euthanize the animal. The Peace Officer shall notify the owner after the animal is euthanized.

- 10.16 A quarantined animal must be examined by a licensed veterinarian, at the owner's expense, prior to release from quarantine. If, in the opinion of the veterinarian, the animal is rabid, the Peace Officer shall euthanize it.

PART ELEVEN - IMPOUNDMENT AND DISPOSAL

- 11.1 The Peace Officer may apprehend, impound and dispose of an animal where the Peace Officer deems it necessary to do so in carrying out the administration and enforcement of this bylaw. In taking any action under this bylaw, the Peace Officer has the powers and authority provided under this bylaw, including those provided to a designated officer under the Municipal Government Act for entering land and structures.
- 11.2 If the owner of the impounded animal is known to the Peace Officer, the Peace Officer shall give the owner notice setting out the particulars of the animal and advising that the animal may be disposed of if not redeemed within seven (7) days of the notice. No further notice to the owner shall be necessary.
- 11.3 If the owner of the impounded animal is unknown, the Peace Officer shall advertise the impoundment setting out the particulars of the animal and advising that the animal may be disposed of if not redeemed within seven (7) days of the notice. No further notice shall be necessary.
- 11.4 The owner of an impounded animal may redeem the animal upon application to the Peace Officer:
- a) in the case of an unlicensed animal, upon a successful application for a license and the payment of the annual license fee and pound fees as set out in Schedule A; and,
 - b) in the case of a licensed animal, upon payment of the pound fees as set out in Schedule A.
- 11.5 The Peace Officer shall provide each impounded animal with shelter, food and water, at the owner's expense, and shall treat the animal humanely. The Town accepts no responsibility for injury or death to any animal whilst impounded.
- 11.6 The Peace Officer may dispose of an impounded animal that is not claimed or where the prescribed fees and other charges are not paid following the expiry of the notice period.
- 11.7 The Peace Officer shall keep a record of all impounded animals, setting out:
- a) the particulars of the animal;
 - b) the date and time it was impounded;
 - c) the name and address of the redeeming party;
 - d) the total of the fines, fees or licenses paid by the redeeming party;
 - e) the proceeds of sale, if any;
 - f) the date and time the animal was disposed of.

PART TWELVE – LIVESTOCK

- 12.1 No livestock shall be permitted within the Town of Grande Cache.
- 12.2 Subsection 12.1 does not apply to livestock ridden, or used in a Town sponsored event, an approved community event or parade.

- 12.3 The owner of livestock shall remove defecation from a highway, pathway, green space or private property immediately.
- 12.4 A Peace Officer may impound any livestock found running at large within the Town.
- 12.5 The pound keeper shall retain impounded livestock for a period of seven (7) days, Sundays, statutory holidays and days that the pounds is not open shall not be included in the computation of the seven (7) days period.
- 12.6 During this seven (7) day period, impounded livestock may be redeemed by its owner upon the owner paying to the pound keeper impoundment fees for every twenty four (24) hour period. A reasonable effort will be made to notify immediately the owner of the livestock, if known, of such impounding.
- 12.7 The pound keeper may dispose of livestock not reclaimed within the seven (7) period or where the prescribed fees and other charges are not paid following the expiry of the retention period.

PART THIRTEEN - GENERAL

- 13.1 No person shall:
- a) interfere with or obstruct the carrying out of the functions under this bylaw by the Peace Officer or the Town of Grande Cache;
 - b) remove or deface a sign required to be posted under this bylaw;
 - c) tease, entice, bait or throw objects at an animal;
 - d) wantonly, cruelly, or unnecessarily beat, bound, or torture, an animal, or expose it to cold or overcrowding in an enclosure or in transit.
- 13.2 Notice under this bylaw may be given by personal service or by regular mail to the last known address of the owner. Where notice is provided by mail, it is deemed effective three (3) days after the date of mailing.

PART FOURTEEN – WILDLIFE ATTRACTANTS

- 14.1 No owner or occupant of a premises shall place, store, permit or dispose of animal attractants outdoors in such a manner that they are accessible to wildlife on any public or private property within the corporate boundaries of Grande Cache.
- 14.2 No person shall feed or attempt to feed wildlife or deposit wildlife attractants in a place or manner that attracts wildlife on any public or private property within the corporate boundaries of Grande Cache.
- 14.3 Owners or occupants of a parcel are responsible to remove ripened fruit from trees and ground in order to deter wildlife from feeding within the Town of Grande Cache.
- 14.4 Bird feeders are to be removed once they become an attractant.

PART FIFTEEN – OFFENCE

- 15.1 Anyone who contravenes this Bylaw is guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by a fine up to $1,000.00 or imprisonment of no more than three (3) months, or both.
- 15.2 If an animal is picked up more than three (3) times per year, the owner will face maximum fines and the animal will be listed as a nuisance and fined.
