

THE BENEFITS OF PLANNING AHEAD

Consider pre-arranging your plot to ensure peace of mind for both yourself and your family. Planning ahead enables you to decisively choose your desired resting place. Additionally, it provides an opportunity to communicate your wishes to loved ones. By doing so, they will not be faced with this decision during an emotionally challenging period of bereavement.

If you have any questions please call the Grande Cache Public Service Building at 780.827.3362.

COLUMBARIUM

Where is the Columbarium?

The Grande Cache Cemetery is located ½ km north of Grande Cache towards Grande Prairie. The columbarium is located in the cemetery, half way up the roadway on the right hand side.

What is a Columbarium?

A columbarium is a structure filled with niches for funeral urns to be stored. The Grande Cache Columbarium is made of granite and marble, stands more than 6' tall, and weighs approximately 13,000 lbs.

What are Niches?

Niches are compartments inside of a columbarium dedicated to hold urns. The interior niche size is 12" x 12" x 16" deep. There are 100 niches in total with 2 sides and 5' x 10' in composition. Each niche holds two urns.

What are the hours of access?

The columbarium is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Is it wheelchair accessible?

Yes. The columbarium is situated in a parking area, and has a concrete slab that allows wheelchair access to all sides.

How do I reserve a niche & choose a plaque?

Niche purchases are administered at the Grande Cache Public Service Building, located at 10002 Shand Avenue. We will show you a map and we can arrange for a staff member to meet you at the Columbarium to help you select the perfect location. We will also present two design options for your memorial bronze plaque to be placed on the columbarium door. We are here to assist you and guide you through the entire process.
